

PRESS RELEASE

Visit of Officer of Commerce & Trade Group
(19th) of Civil Service at PRGMEA

(Karachi-12th February 2011): The Officers from Commerce and Trade Group comprising on 34 members visited at PRGMEA and met Mr. Muhammad Jawed Chinoy, Chairman, South Zone, Members of Managing Committee and other members.

Mr. Muhammad Jawed Chinoy welcomed and briefed them about the functions and activities of the association through a presentation. He said PRGMEA is playing a vital role between the government and its members. PRGMEA members not only earn foreign exchange for the country but also represent the country and its products abroad.

He further stated that the business community wants more and more business opportunities generated by civil officers posted at abroad. He further said that we want the government functionaries to play a role of facilitator rather than a barrier to commercial activity.

He hope that the officers of civil services (19th STP) shall play their part to increase the trade relationship throughout the world and present a positive view of label "made in Pakistan" and remove the negative image. He said that association will always help the civil officers in resolving the matters relating to the economy and trade.
